

Victorian Registration &
Qualifications Authority

Home schooling regulation changes

Chris Ingham
Acting Chief Executive Officer

20 November 2017

Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority

Today we will cover

- If your child is already registered
- If your child is not yet registered
- Learning plans
- Exemptions
- Reviews
- Questions

Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority

My child is not yet registered

2017

Application? Learning Plan? Exemption?

Your application will be under the 'old' system, which does not require a learning plan or exemption application (where relevant). You can nominate a start date up to six months away (e.g. up to April 2018).

2018

Application .

From 1 January 2018, all applications will require a Learning Plan  and Exemptions  (where relevant).

Review?  (10% chance)

If you're selected, you'll be notified in February or March 2018.

Learning Plans

- Specifies when and where instruction will take place
- Subject matter that will be covered during the first year of registration
- Details of the educational materials and resources proposed to be used, including how the student's learning outcomes will be recorded
- Templates available but their use is optional

